

FACTORS ASSOCIATED WITH INFANT IMMUNISATION
COVERAGE IN THE CAPRICORN
DISTRICT OF LIMPOPO PROVINCE.

INAH MALATSI
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
& SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT. LIMPOPO

1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

- The World Health Organisation (WHO)
- The Expanded Programme of Immunisation (EPI)
- Immunisation statistics in Limpopo Province
- The rationale of the study

2. GOAL & OBJECTIVES

- To identify factors that contribute to immunisation coverage in children residing at Aganang municipality.
 1. To identify factors leading to non-adherence on immunisation schedule.
 2. To identify alternative measures used by mothers to prevent childhood diseases.
 3. To identify enabling factors to immunisation uptake

3. LITERATURE REVIEW

- Service
- Health Care Workers
- Parents

4. METHODOLOGY

8.1 Study design

8.2 Study Area

8.4 Population

8.5 Sampling

8.7 Data collection method

8.8 Data Analysis

5.ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Explanation of the process
- Participants signed consent forms.
- Permission was granted

6. RESULTS

- Barriers
- Availability & quality of service
- Alternatives practices.
- Cultural / traditional beliefs

7 .ENABLING FACTORS

- Community expectations
- Attitudes of HCW
- Encouragement / motivations & importance of immunization services.

8. RECOMMENDATIONS

- Convenience and comfort
- Attitude of health workers
- Accessibility
- Commitment

9. CONCLUSION

- Identified contributing factors
- Batho-Pele principles
- The Constitution of South Africa
- Strong leadership